Recording Artist Stacy 'Elevated' to Sing at GCMA Artist Showcase July 17 in Decatur, GA

Orlando, FL (July 16, 2026)—Indie artist Stacy “Elevated” Wilson will minister through song during the Gospel Choice Music Awards (GCMA) weekend celebration from July 16-18 in Decatur, GA.

Winner of the 2025 GCMA Gospel/Religious Songwriter of the Year award, Stacy will inspire attendees with her first Single, “You Chose Me,” at the Annual Artist Showcase to be held Friday, July 17 at 7 p.m. at Covenant Church (1600 Agape Way in Decatur).

Recognized as the 2024 National Female Gospel Artist of the Year by Love Gospel Radio, the psalmist is no stranger to the stage. Singing since age 11, Stacy has served as worship leader for several ministries throughout Central Florida.

During the global pandemic, she wrote “You Chose Me” as she was about to give up on the possibility of having a professional music career. On 2.11.22, she released this hit ballad for which she sang and recorded the background vocals, and co-produced with Jerry Quarterman of Prosperity Records.

With the release of five more singles, including a collaboration with fellow Jamaican and acclaimed lyricist Prince Saj, Stacy birthed her debut album called “The Promise” (nominated Album of the Year for the 2026 GCMA).

Featuring 12 original songs, the fifth track titled “God’s Love” (produced by ZJ Dero of Kenya) has landed the number #1 slot on the GLN365 Reggae Gospel Top 10 chart.

“[This song] leads the pack with a title that says everything and still leaves room for wonder,” writes Dr. D. Roy Bramwell, founder of the Global Leadership Network (GLN). “Stacy’s voice carries warmth and conviction, and the track’s steady groove gives the message breathing room.”

Dr. Bramwell continues, “In a year when audiences are gravitating toward songs of reassurance and spiritual grounding, ‘God’s Love’ lands as both anthem and testimony. It’s the kind of record that invites repeat listens because its simplicity is its strength.”
